

CLAYSVILLE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

March 20, 2012

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 a.m. 11 members were in attendance.

Our meeting was opened with prayer.

MINUTES: - were reviewed and approved with no changes. Minutes were sent via email prior to the meeting.

TREASURER'S REPORT: No report.

DUTCH FORK LAKE – Donna Riggle will email the secretary with details of her report. The fish and boat engineers have visited the lake site and have agreed to a great location for the ADA ramp.

CAPRI – MURAL – The project is still in process. It was discussed at the CAPRI meeting and the mural committee will meet. Each organization will be asked to have a representative on the committee. The committee will be working on developing a fund raiser for the mural.

We received no LSA funding for our projects as previously reported. If the oil and gas money kicks in from the state fees there may be additional funds available.

ADMIN BUILDING – at this time it is still in process. The contractor is still waiting on a new door. Once the door is installed there will be a dedication ceremony. Representative Daley's office will be moving into the building. Clay Gilgore may be able to put together a historical display for the building. The Library is on hold because of funding.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

- Lenten Luncheons are continuing until Easter.
- Council of Churches will have a Roast Beef Dinner on April 21, 4-7 P.M. at the Claysville Fire Hall. Tickets are $9.00 and $6.00. They are available from council members.

RELAY FOR LIFE –will be held on June 9-10.

CLEAN-UP DAY We continued a previous conversation about a clean-up day. Jim Milligan will be having a clean-up day with the Boy Scouts participating. We can join them if we would like. He will provide a date. Keep America Beautiful will provide gloves, and bags under the Project Pride Program.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN - The borough approved the plan and it now goes to the township for approval.

RAILS TO TRAILS: There will be a meeting on March 26 at 6 P.M. at the parking lot across from the cemetery. To get people up to date on the site there will be a walk of the trail.

BOROUGH DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Montgomery Mansion will be hosting a Mystery Dinner Theater
- There are still properties available in the borough
- The billboard is still being planned and the project will continue
- We have 27 paid members as of this meeting
- There was a discussion concerning companies converting vehicles to gas and the need for more fueling stations. This led to a discussion about gas drilling developments in the area. Not much of the discussion was applicable to the CBA other than keeping members informed.
- There will be a Community Bank sponsored Royalties Seminar 7 – 7:30 P.M. tonight.
- The development of the Fishe building by Newton Consulting was discussed with consensus that the project was a good move forward for the community. The old Pap's building is being converted to house multiple businesses. The Hensel house is being remodeled to open as a café.

The next meeting will be at the Huddle House at 8 AM on April 17, 2012

Meeting adjourned at 9:15 A.M.

Katherine Prescott